

Holland House is adjacent to Weybridge Station which connects with main line trains (London to Portsmouth) that come direct from Waterloo, Clapham Junction, Wimbledon, Surbiton and also from Barnes through Hounslow to Weybridge. In the other direction, trains come from Alton to Guildford, Woking and Weybridge.

Go straight over the traffic lights to the next roundabout. Take the 2nd exit right off the roundabout towards Weybridge (B374), straight over the next roundabout and up the hill until you get to Weybridge Station on your left. At the next roundabout, with Abaya Bar & Restaurant and the road to the station on your left, take the second turn left into the road adjacent to the car park. Holland House is the first entrance on the left.

From London on the A3 take the exit off the A3 to Cobham/Weybridge, go round the roundabout and take 3rd exit A245 to Byfleet (after 2nd exit back on to A3) and stay in left hand lane. Continue as above
